

Dr. Harvey and Grace Brooker Education Fund Application for Funding

Dr. Harvey Brooker passed away in October, 2017 leaving behind a legacy of teaching, mentoring and the development of psychology as a leading profession in Canada.

To honour his memory and passion to help students, Dr. Brooker's family have established an Education Fund (administered by Strong Minds Strong Kids, Psychology Canada (SMSKPC) to support travel expenses for students at Canadian universities.

A grant of up to $500/student is available with preference given to students without opportunities for travel grants to attend provincial or national psychology conferences and workshops in Canada during the year following the date availability of the grant. Applicants are expected to apply for other travel funds for which they are eligible, to indicate these on their application, and to notify SMSKPC if they receive funding from other sources.

The applicant must be an undergraduate or graduate student in a psychology program at a Canadian University, and an affiliate member of the Canadian Psychological Association or a provincial psychological association.

Proposal Requirements:

The proposal should be submitted electronically as an email attachment (Microsoft Word or PDF format) to info@strongmindsstrongkids.org, with "Dr. Harvey & Grace Brooker Award" as the subject of the email. The application should include:

1. A cover sheet with the applicant's name, address, phone number, student status and e-mail address.
2. An abstract of 100 words or less summarizing how the funds will be used – name of conference or workshop, purpose of attending, need for travel/registration funds. Note virtual conferences are acceptable.
3. Resume or CV of applicant.
4. A statement from the student's department chair that the department supports the student's application.
5. Specific amount requested (up to $500).

Any application that does not meet the proposal requirements will not be considered.
